HANDKERCHIEF GUIDE

FREQUENTLY ASKED Questions

Can you put other Collection designs on the handkerchiefs?

Our standard handkerchief design options include Boudoir, Gatsby, Laurel, Rustic, Signature and Storybook, but if you would like to use one of our other designs, email us to discuss the possibilities.

What is the turnaround time for handkerchief invitations?

After final payment and approval are made, your order will ship 5-7 weeks later. There is no rush option available for handkerchiefs.

Can I add other enclosure cards to my handkerchief invitation?

Yes! In fact, we highly recommend that you order either a reply postcard or letterpress or flatprinted enclosure card to give your handkerchief a stable backing for mailing.

Do you supply the handkerchiefs if I want to order handkerchief invitations or save-the-dates?

Do they come with envelopes?

Yes, we supply the handkerchiefs but if you prefer, we happily invite brides who collect their own to send them to us for design and printing (if you're interested in this option, see our pricing chart). All invitations and save-the-dates come with unprinted envelopes. For an additional fee, we can print a coordinated return address design on the flap for you.

How are handkerchief invitations and save-the-dates mailed? Will other enclosure cards fit too?

We recommend that you fold the handkerchief into the shape of a traditional invitation, and place inside the envelope. If you order enclosure cards as well, it's best to fold the handkerchief around them. See page 5 for the folding tutorial.

Can I choose the colors and styles of my floral handkerchiefs?

Unfortunately, we cannot offer specific colors or styles in floral handkerchiefs. What you receive is an assortment of styles and colors with your design (in your chosen ink color) screenprinted on vintage reproduction hankies.

What is the smallest order I can place for handkerchiefs?

The smallest quantity we offer in handkerchiefs is (12).

Can I have a 2-color design printed on the hankies?

No, hankies can be printed in one color only. For floral hankies we recommend either grey or black.

What size/type handkerchiefs should I send if I supply my own? Where can I buy them?

They should be 10-13" square, cotton or silk, and sent to us ironed flat. eBay and etsy are great places to begin your search for vintage handkerchiefs.

What do you recommend for a reply card?

The vintage postcards like Destination or Kate are perfect with the handkerchief invitation.

Handkerchief Styles

The standard handkerchief save-the-date and invitation artwork is shown printed in the center on the diagonal. Our standard handkerchief design options include Boudoir, Gatsby, Laurel, Rustic, Signature and Storybook, but if you would like to use one of our other designs, email us to discuss the possibilities.

HANDKERCHIEF Ink Colors

Customize your handkerchiefs with a color from the Lucky Luxe palette. We advise using charcoal or black for floral handkerchiefs.

We recommend these colors for readability and neutrality on your handkerchief invitation:

grey

charcoal

black

These colors also available for your handkerchief ink:

merlot

eggplant

chocolate

navy

peacock

metallic gold

Envelopes

CRANE LETTRA (32 LB.)

All handkerchief invitations and save-the-dates come with printed 100 % cotton Crane Lettra envelopes in either pearl or white. Pearl coordinates nicely with our ivory handkerchiefs and white matches our white handkerchief.

FOLDING Tutorial

Follow these step-by-step instructions for folding your handkerchiefs for mailing. If you do not have any additional enclosure cards, skip step 4.

1. Place handkerchief on flat surface.

2. Turn it over, face-down.

3. Fold the 2 corners at the top and bottom of your invitation wording.

4. If you have any enclosure cards, place them face-down on the center.

5. Fold the remaining corners to form a rectangle.

6. Turn it over to make sure the wording is centered.

7. Place inside the envelope.
